

What should I expect?

There will be plenty of time to knit while enjoying the fireplace and good conversation, and times for mini-workshops on technique, gadgets, websites, and topics you choose. There are snowshoes available to use and you are invited to walk around the camp and down to the lake. There are cross-country trails nearby if you wish to bring your skis.

Come, rest, reflect, renew.

What is our schedule?

You are welcome to arrive on Wednesday starting at 3 pm. We won't be serving meals but you can bring food. We have a full kitchen for you to use or you can go in to town to one of our restaurants. You will be served breakfast and lunch on Thursday.

For those arriving on Thursday, you may arrive any time after 3 pm. We will plan to spend time knitting and building our mini-workshop list. Your first meal will be breakfast on Friday. You may bring food for supper or go in to town. Each day will include morning devotions, knitting, mini-workshops, book discussion, and more knitting. You are welcome to take breaks to rest, hike, or ski. This time is yours to design.

Sunday morning we will have devotions and knitting time as well as Sunday Brunch. You are welcome to stay until 3 pm.

What to bring:

- *Your knitting projects and supplies
- *Pillow, Bedding and Towels unless you wish to use ours. (Extra charge)
- *Personal items (comfy clothes, slippers, etc.)
- *Flashlight
- *Pillow or cushion for chair
- * Snack to share
- Outdoor clothing for break time
